*Limavady.*SCHEDULE.

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD FOR IRELAND.

TOWN OF LIMAVADY.

PROVISIONAL ORDER.

WHEREAS there are in the town of Limavady in the county Londonderry 5 town commissioners under the Towns Improvement (Ireland) Act 1854 and the population of the town being less than 6,000 the town commissioners have presented a petition to the Local Government Board for Ireland (herein-after called the Local Government Board) praying for a Provisional Order in pursuance of section seven of the Public Health (Ireland) Act 1878 to separate 10 the town from the rural sanitary district consisting of the Limavady poor law union (wherein the town is situated) and to constitute the town an urban sanitary district:

17 & 18 Vict.
c. 163.41 & 42 Vict.
c. 52.

And whereas the guardians of the poor of the Limavady Union (herein-after called the rural sanitary authority) have passed a resolution approving of and 15 supporting the said petition:

And whereas by an Order of the Local Government Board made the 21st June 1876 it was declared that the area of charge for expenses to be incurred by the rural sanitary authority in providing a supply of water to the said town should be the townlands of Cooleman Killane Newtown Limavady 20 (otherwise Rathbrady-beg) and Rathbrady-more and the whole of the townland of Newtown Limavady (otherwise Rathbrady-beg) lies within the boundary of the said town and each of the other townlands included in the said area of charge lies partly within and partly without the said boundary:

40 & 41 Vict.
c. 432.

And whereas by the Limavady Waterworks Provisional Order 1877 25 confirmed by the Local Government Board (Ireland) Provisional Orders (Enacts &c.) Confirmation Act 1877 the rural sanitary authority were empowered to put in force the powers of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to the purchase and taking of land otherwise than by agreement with reference to the lands and premises therein mentioned for the purpose of constructing 30 waterworks for providing a supply of water to the said town:

And whereas the rural sanitary authority borrowed from the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland (herein-after called the Board of Works) a sum of 6,000L secured by a mortgage dated the third day of March 1879 of the rates of the said area of charge and repayable by an annuity as therein 35 mentioned and a further sum of 500L secured by a mortgage dated the seventeenth day of March 1884 of the said rates and repayable by equal annual instalments of the principal sum together with interest on the balance of the principal sum remaining due from time to time at the rate and in the manner provided by the said mortgage: 40

And whereas the rural sanitary authority by means of the moneys so borrowed have acquired the lands and premises mentioned in the said Provisional Order and have constructed the waterworks described therein and in the schedule to this Order and have paid the sums which have from time to time become payable in respect of the said mortgages:

A.D. 1897.

Linavady.

And whereas when the said town is constituted an urban sanitary district all powers rights and duties of providing a supply of water to the said town will be transferred from the rural sanitary authority to the urban sanitary authority constituted by this Order and it is therefore proper to transfer the said water-works and premises from the rural sanitary authority to the urban sanitary authority and to make provision with respect to the payment of the moneys which will hereafter become due and payable in respect of the said mortgages:

And whereas all advertisements required by the Public Health (Ireland) Act 1878 having been previously published the Local Government Board have caused a local inquiry to be held and it appears to be proper to make this Order with reference to the matters aforesaid:

41 & 42 Vict.
